

This class is a hands-on class to teach photographers how to move images from memory cards to their hard drive, thumb drive/flash drive, or DVD. Also covered is how to use Microsoft Explorer to create file/storage folders and also copy images to and from these file folders. For PC users only.

Requirement: All students must be familiar with working with a mouse and have very basic PC knowledge.

Instructor: John Obradovich