

What Do Judges Look For?
Picking Images for Competition
Instructor: Larry Cowles

Larry will review the judging process and discuss the major items judges look for in competition judging. He will then review a series of images that were actually entered in International Exhibitions giving comments about judges' thoughts and giving them a score. Afterwards, another set of images will be shown to the students which they will judge. Scores will be compared and discussed.